| | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Breakfast in the hotel. During the excursion to the Argentinian Falls we will visit the traditional circuits: The lower circuit has 1.200 meters, where we can appreciate most of the waterfalls from a really close perspective. It is a 2-hour tour that has many stairs making this walk a little bit hard. The upper circuit has 1.300 meters (with return). It leads us into the main waterfalls giving us a panoramic view of the group of falls from above. This circuit has no stairs and we finish it in 1 hour. We reach Garganta del Diablo (which means Devil's Throat) with the Tren Ecológico de la Selva (Rainforest Ecological Train) getting off at Garganta del Diablo station. From there we make a walk by the new footbridge which counts with 1.100 meters. We arrive to a wonderful panoramic point with balconies in front of the Devil's Throat. It is a 2-hour tour and has no stairs. Excursion in regular service. Departure time from 08:30 daily. Duration: 9 hours |
